

Ira Thomas Put Forward As The Next Manager Of The Yankees :: Harvard's Defense Against Rugby Pass

HARVARD AND YALE LIKELY TO NUMBER MEN

Boston, Nov. 17.—Harvard and Yale football players may wear numbers on their jerseys when they clash in their great battle in the Yale Bowl next Saturday. The system by which spectators can easily identify the men on the playing field has been so cordially commended by the public in many of the big college games this season that both the Harvard and the Yale managements have been impressed, and there is a likelihood that the Crimson and the Blue teams may bear numbers in their final game.

The good points of the numbering scheme were brought home to Coach Huntington of Harvard in the Harvard-Princeton game in the stadium, when all the Tiger players had numbers, a foot high, on the back of their jerseys which were visible to the persons who sat in the stands.

It is fairly certain that in next week's games the Harvard team will have numbers for the purpose of easy identification, for the president of the board of trustees has approved the idea, that the authorities at Cambridge and New Haven cannot well turn a deaf ear to their demands. Dartmouth will also have the numbers, and Princeton fell into line shortly after.

There has been nothing but praise for the scheme.

At the Yale game, where 32,000 persons will see Harvard and Yale battle, the spectators will be further away from the players than in most of the other games, and it will be still more difficult to recognize the individual players.

Huntington has opposed the idea consistently since it was first suggested, but his value and efficacy has been proved to him so well during the last few weeks that he is willing to concede it, it is reported, and if proper arrangements can be pushed through this week Harvard and Yale players will have their numbers on Saturday.

Otherwise, Harvard may wait until next year and begin the season by assigning numbers to the players.

BLUE RIBBONS OPEN SEASON TONIGHT WITH CRACK YONKERS FIVE

There is considerable curiosity among basketball fans to see how the new troops of the Blue Ribbon five will compare with the old veterans. The team will play the first game of the season tonight at 8:30 at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.

Leonard at center, Arthur of the Knickerbockers, Swenson of New York and Langhorne of the old Blue Ribbon are expected to make a strong lineup. The Yonkers boys are led by Jimmy Clinton, supposed to be one of the best players in the game. There will be a preliminary game between the All-Stars and the Clowns. The main game begins at 8:30. Dancing will follow.

ROSEBUDS' DANCE TOMORROW

The third annual dance will be given by the Rosebuds' football team tomorrow night. All members of the Rosebuds' football team are requested to report for practice this evening at the Rosebuds' lot at 7:30 as they have some important business to transact.

FANS' OWN COLUMN

RUBBER COATS
RUBBER BOOTS
OILED CLOTHING

Jaycox Rubber Co.
1042 Main St. Head Cannon St.

THE FAUST

NEWLY OPENED
EXCELLENT CUISINE
BEST CABARET

38-42 ELM STREET

JOHN A. MURPHY
SUITS AND SHIRTS
Made to Measure

1200 Main Street Up Stairs

Shows for All Members of the Family

BOSTON SHOE STORE

1228 MAIN STREET,
Felt's Theatre Building

UP-TO-DATE BARBER SHOP

STYLISH BARBERS NO WAITING

WILLIAM MCCORMICK

866 Main St. Over Douglas' Shoe Store

W. N. DEAN, Proprietor

Phone 1052-4 Licensed Chiropodist

AUTO TRUCK

Long distance and city moving. Excursion parties, general trucking.

H. S. Wakelee, Phone 547.

Dr. Thompson

Practice Limited to Men

1125 MAIN STREET

Bridgeport, Conn.

Office Hours—

Daily 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Sundays 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

HOME RUN BAKER MAY BE TRADED BY MANAGER MACK

Athletic's Leader Said to be Sore Because Clouter Wants More Money

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—The cutting loose of Bender, Mack and Coombs, the great pitching trio of the Athletics, by Manager Mack recently, was a mild move compared to the next one that the champion's leader is planning to make in the very near future. This will involve the sale or transfer of Third Baseman Baker, the "home-run king." Left Fielder Rube Oldring and Catcher Lapp. That this move is only awaiting certain developments is certified to by baseball men close to the local club, but Manager Mack himself is too close-mouthed to give any details until he is ready to make his sweep.

This is the only reason the announcement has not been made. Once

HERE IS RED ALLEN, WHO WILL BOX HUBBS AT ARMORY SHOW

HERZOG HOPES TO REORGANIZE CINCINNATI TEAM NEXT SEASON

Manager Herzog will try to make a showing with the Cincinnati Reds next season by the use of fast young players, most of whom have been hitherto unknown to fame. The Red leader discovered last year that the older players on the club were many of them too much accustomed to second division ways and methods to fit in well with his advanced idea of winning baseball and he decided to make a thorough housecleaning.

In the course of the operation the Reds finished absolutely last for the first time in thirteen years, but the theory of the scheme is undoubtedly correct and Herzog will be given a chance to make good along his own lines the coming summer.

His own personal work and the handling of the team on the field could scarcely have been improved upon. He was subjected to some severe criticism by certain players for not associating with them more intimately off the field, but this was just some of the old alibi stuff which has kept the Reds down for a long time. Herzog's policy with regard to his players is exactly the same as that of McGraw, who has been a winning manager for many years and has always commanded the respect of his men.

One Cincinnati player showed quite a streak of ingratitude when he roasted Herzog for not making boom companions of his players off the field. This player was given a possible chance by Herzog last year, and when he was married during the season the Red leader went out of his way to see that he was given a handsome wedding present.

The hard-working and winning players do not get peeved because their manager does not seek their society off the lot. So long as he is fair in all his dealing and leads them with energy and judgment on the field they are satisfied. Herzog is rapidly weeding out the famous Alibi club and next year he will have a number of young players who will be glad to follow his advice to the letter and play the kind of game which he is prepared to teach.

Members of the association promise a bigger and better show than ever this year. Already a large number of entries for the dog show have been received. The following judges have been named for the dog show: O. J. Torin of Fairfield, to judge Chows; J. M. Blair of Bridgeport, to judge Airedales, fox hounds, scalyhairs and beagles; George Hall of Bridgeport, will judge St. Bernards, mastiffs, pointers, collies, German shepherd dogs, grayhounds, bull terriers and all the other dogs.

An unusually large number of entries of prize chickens, ducks and net stock of all descriptions is expected.

NINE RIDERS IN TIE FOR LEAD IN BIG SIX DAY RACE

New York, Nov. 17.—Sixteen bicycle teams were still riding to new records in the six day race at Madison Square Garden today. Nine of these led in a cluster at 336 miles, 7 laps at 8 o'clock today, the end of the third hour. Four followed a lap behind, two more trailed the leaders three laps and even the last-enders, Kopsky and Hansen, had trailed 336 miles.

Goulet and Grenda, Cameron and Kaiser, Root and Clark, Lawrence and Magin, Egg and Verri, Moran and McNamara, Walkover and Halstead, Foster and Hill and Lawson and Drobach—all 636 miles, 7 laps, Bedell and Bedell, Ryan and Wohlhab, Thomas and Hanley and Mitten and Anderson—all 436 miles 4 laps. Cavanaugh and Piercy and Dupuy and Seres—all 436 miles 4 laps and Kopsky and Hansen, 636 miles.

The leading teams dropped below the record this morning. At 11 o'clock today the nine leaders were bunched with a score of 743 miles. Bedell and Bedell, Ryan and Wohlhab, Thomas and Hanley and Mitten and Anderson were trailing one lap behind the leader, while Cavanaugh and Piercy and Dupuy and Seres were two laps behind. Kopsky and Hansen still formed the rear guard, seven laps behind the leaders.

The record for the 35th hour was 743 miles and 5 laps, made by Verri and Brocco in 1913.

Mrs. Thomas Landon, 100 Whitney avenue, has reported to the police that she lost her handbag while shopping yesterday on Main street, the bag containing $20 that she had just drawn from the City Savings bank and her bank book. She believes that it was stolen by a woman whom she is talking in quieting a crying baby.

5 1500 New Full Woollens B
SEE LYFORD BROTHERS BUY
E East Side and West End Y

PENN TEAM MAY REFUSE "P" LETTERS

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 17.—Except for a small squad of second stringers, Franklin Field was deserted yesterday, for Pennsylvania is in the doldrums of despair over the utter disorganization of its football forces. Penn faces the Cornell game fearful of the result.

In addition to the rout by Michigan, the local press jumped on the team pretty hard. One writer asserted that if the players were awarded their letters this year, the "P" would stand for "Punk." It is said that if Penn is beaten by Cornell the men will refuse their letters. In some quarters the blame is fixed on George Brooks for failing to equip his team with an attack.

Dartmouth worked the same kind of a play against Penn that enabled Michigan to gain such an easy decision the previous Saturday. Penn had had the team on the field for a long time sweeping passes which got off to the side of the field, but at the end of four days of secret practice the team was fooled again by the same kind of a play. The team was so tired they don't know how to break up the passes.

HERZOG HOPES TO REORGANIZE CINCINNATI TEAM NEXT SEASON

Manager Herzog will try to make a showing with the Cincinnati Reds next season by the use of fast young players, most of whom have been hitherto unknown to fame. The Red leader discovered last year that the older players on the club were many of them too much accustomed to second division ways and methods to fit in well with his advanced idea of winning baseball and he decided to make a thorough housecleaning.

In the course of the operation the Reds finished absolutely last for the first time in thirteen years, but the theory of the scheme is undoubtedly correct and Herzog will be given a chance to make good along his own lines the coming summer.

His own personal work and the handling of the team on the field could scarcely have been improved upon. He was subjected to some severe criticism by certain players for not associating with them more intimately off the field, but this was just some of the old alibi stuff which has kept the Reds down for a long time. Herzog's policy with regard to his players is exactly the same as that of McGraw, who has been a winning manager for many years and has always commanded the respect of his men.

One Cincinnati player showed quite a streak of ingratitude when he roasted Herzog for not making boom companions of his players off the field. This player was given a possible chance by Herzog last year, and when he was married during the season the Red leader went out of his way to see that he was given a handsome wedding present.

The hard-working and winning players do not get peeved because their manager does not seek their society off the lot. So long as he is fair in all his dealing and leads them with energy and judgment on the field they are satisfied. Herzog is rapidly weeding out the famous Alibi club and next year he will have a number of young players who will be glad to follow his advice to the letter and play the kind of game which he is prepared to teach.

Members of the association promise a bigger and better show than ever this year. Already a large number of entries for the dog show have been received. The following judges have been named for the dog show: O. J. Torin of Fairfield, to judge Chows; J. M. Blair of Bridgeport, to judge Airedales, fox hounds, scalyhairs and beagles; George Hall of Bridgeport, will judge St. Bernards, mastiffs, pointers, collies, German shepherd dogs, grayhounds, bull terriers and all the other dogs.

An unusually large number of entries of prize chickens, ducks and net stock of all descriptions is expected.

FORDHAM REFUSES UNEARNED VICTORY

New York, Nov. 17.—The Fordham-Vermont game on Saturday was the subject of much discussion yesterday on the Fordham campus. In order to decide what was the exact cause of the mix-up over the goal from touch-down, the Fordham Athletic Association held a meeting. After consulting the officials of the game, solution of the matter was that a misunderstanding arose over the right of adjudication of the officials. One of the officials stated that the goal did not count, while the other asserted it was valid.

Fordham students were unanimous in their decision to offer every possible courtesy to the Vermont eleven. Fordham decided that Vermont should not suffer from the fact that the officials disagreed as to the goal.

The score 7 to 6 in favor of Vermont.

ENWRIGHT, HARVARD STAR, NOT SERIOUSLY HURT

Tom Enwright, captain of the Harvard freshman football team, who was accidentally kicked in the head in the Yale-Harvard game at New Haven, Saturday, was taken from the Stillman infirmary at Harvard, Sunday, and brought to his home in Fall River by his father.

Enwright's injury, which was at first considered very serious, will keep him from his studies for a week or more. He is suffering from a mild form of concussion.

In the early part of the freshman game at New Haven one of the Yale men, throwing himself at Enwright to keep the Harvard captain from tackling an All back, accidentally hit Enwright's head. The freshman leader was taken from the field unconscious and rushed to the New Haven station. A special car was attached to an express train, and he was hastened to the Harvard infirmary, where it was thought an operation would be necessary. Enwright's head was examined, however, and the fears of the physicians were not substantiated.

He is the great hope of Harvard's 1915 varsity eleven, for before he entered Harvard in the fall he was rated as the best schoolboy football player in the United States.

Farmer Want Ads. Or Cent a Word.

ANNEX AND GLEES MAY PLAY YOSTS WITH OUTSIDERS

Snappy Snapshots Of Interest To Those Who Follow Sporting Events

(By Wagner.)

It is predicted that the Annex and Washington Glee club football eleven will display more anxiety to play against the Remington-Yosts now that the two New Haven teams have decided to import outside stars. These teams have concluded not to abide by the arrangement whereby none but local men should be used. The Annex found they could not get a team strong enough to cope with the Glee club so they figured it would be better to import some college stars.

The Annex and Glee will not be able to get Yale field for their Thanksgiving Day game because Yale officials will not allow use of the field unless both teams are composed of New Haven players. It is probable that the game will take place at Savin Rock. Thus the elimination series falls through. It had been arranged to have the Williams and Crickets clash and have the winner meet the Glee club in the semi-finals. The victor in this game would meet the Annex on Thanksgiving Day. The latest move means that Mosher and Lavery of the Williams will have to play the Glee club. With out of town stars in their ranks the Elm City boys will be more willing to take a chance with the Yosts.

Frederick W. Rubien of New York has been elected secretary of the A. A. U. to succeed the late James E. Sullivan.

President Fultz of the Players' fraternity says that if peace is declared those players who jumped contracts to join the Federal league will not be reinstated in the fraternity. It was probably worrying more about getting on somebody's payroll.

First Baseman Konetchy of the Pittsburgh Pirates admits he has jumped to the Pittsburgh Federals.

RUGBY PASS USED AGAINST HARVARD TEAM

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 17.—There was some real football for Harvard yesterday afternoon on Soldiers' Field, where, after having rested for four days, the Varsity went out for a long hard drill against the services. It was about the hardest practice the Crimson has put up with in the last week of the season.

The regulars were out together with the exception that Wilkinson was in place of right guard on defense. The latter has been out since he was injured in a severe cold, and as the weather was rough today, he was not allowed to come to the field. It is hoped Wilkinson will get better at once. In this respect he is not in Weston's class as guard, and with his regular forwards intact Harvard figures that it will just about be able to counterbalance Yale's running game with its own consistency on Saturday.

Wallace was at center, and this means that he will be first choice over Bigelow for the middle of the line on Saturday.

The scrum who are doing very well now with the Yale lateral passing offense, had degrees of success today, but the Varsity defense is getting keener every day.

Charley Beckley was active yesterday afternoon. He wanted to try for a field goal late in the Brown game, and there now is very little doubt that he will be allowed to try a shot against Yale if three points would win the game for Harvard. Otherwise, he will not get into the game.

ORDER BRIDGEPORT NEW HAVEN SOCCER GAME PLAYED AGAIN

A special meeting of the executive committee of the Connecticut State football association was held last Saturday evening in the Carrington hotel, New Haven. New Haven protested against the result of the game played at Bridgeport, City, November 8, on the grounds that the management had not received notification. Also that it did not receive a list of players until twenty-four hours before the game. It was decided to replay the game November 28.

Tatville claimed the game and $15 for the Ansonia-Fallville game, Saturday, November 7. It was decided that the game must be played on or before November 28. Tatville was allowed $5 expenses.

The Manchester Glens were disqualified as they had ample time to make all the arrangements for the Terry Turbine game, but had neglected to do so. Their entrance fee was returned and the game awarded to the Terry Turbine club.

The drawing for the second round of the state cup competition resulted as follows:

Brussels vs. Ansonia or Tatville.

Terry Turbines vs. Bridgeport City or New Haven.

New Britain vs. Presbyterians of Bridgeport.

Manchester United vs. Bridgeport Calceolians.

All games to be played on the ground of the first named club on or before December 5.

It is interesting to note that every game is to be played on the grounds of a northern league club.

According to Provisional President Gutierrez, both General Villa and General Carranza will resign their positions and leave Mexico.

The American White Cross society was founded in New York. The members are unemployed ex-soldiers and sailors.

YALE PARADE TO CELEBRATE TIGER DEFEAT

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 17.—Head Coach Frank Hinkley kept up his strenuous program yesterday and there was little rest for the Yale football squad. The regular Friday started in the Princeton game Saturday all reported for work except Sullivan, who appeared on the side lines with a cane because of a twisted ankle.

Especially whose place at right end and Sullivan took after the former was injured a month ago, played right end on the first team yesterday, and showed no trace of the lameness which resulted from an injury to his ankle. The former end was fast in getting down the field under punts and sure in catching the forward passes directed at him. In this respect he is the superior of Skillman and will make an ideal running mate for "Red" Brann, whose work in this department of the game was sensational on Saturday.

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."

The Princeton victory was celebrated last night with a monster torchlight parade in which 2,500 Yale students took part. Headed by a band and followed by the football team, the men marched over the campus and through "Sheff Town." At the corner of Wall and College streets the cheering students encountered "Pat" Moran, who was on his way home. They quickly surrounded him on the sidewalk and called for a speech. "You have caught me unprepared," he said, "I am glad to see you all so organized and enthusiastic and I hope it will win Saturday."